

Ambassador Deborah Birx, MD. Deborah L. Birx, M.D., served the United States, as an Army Colonel and later, running some of the most high-profile and influential programs at the U.S. Centers for Disease Control and Prevention and U.S. Department of State. Dr. Birx served as the White House Coronavirus Response Coordinator, using complex data integration to drive decision-making, as well as worked closely with state officials across the country to provide state-specific advice and guidance. Dr. Birx is a world-renowned medical expert and leader whose long career has focused on clinical and basic immunology, infectious disease, pandemic preparedness, vaccine research, and global health. As the U.S. Global AIDS Coordinator from 2014-2021, she oversaw the spending of the $6 billion annual budget of the U.S. President's Emergency Plan for AIDS Relief (PEPFAR), the largest commitment by any nation to combat a single disease in history, as well as all U.S. Government engagement with the Global Fund to Fight AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria. Dr. Birx recently completed her first book entitled Silent Invasion published by HarperCollins; is a Bush Institute Senior Fellow and Independent Board Director at Innoviva. [Deborah L.
